

These Da Vinci Holiday Quizzes will put a jingle in your step and make your brain sparkle as bright as your holiday decorations!

Ice, Ice Baby Quiz

1 What degree does water have to get to in order to turn to ice?

- A 41°F (5°C) B 32°F (0°C) C 212 °F (100 °C)
D 53 °F (12 °C)

2 What happens if you add rock salt to a bucket of ice water?

- A The rock salt dissolves completely and has no impact on the water.
B The rock salt causes the water to warm slightly.
C The rock salt separates from the water because it's heavier.
D The rock salt lowers the temperature below 32°F by lowering the freezing point.

3 What happens when the first ice crystal forms in a bottle of supercooled water?

- A A chain reaction happens, where new ice crystals can join to existing ones, until the crystallization spreads across the entire bottle of water.
B The rock salt is converted into a liquid.
C A magnetic field forms around the body of water.
D A double displacement reaction occurs, creating two new compounds in the water.

4 The Inupiaq people of Alaska have how many names for ice?

- A 30 B 70 C 100 D 25

Amp up your winter with more jaw-droppin science experiments you can do at home with Steve Spangler's Xploration DIY SCI on Da Vinci Kids 